Speaking Our Selves brings together eight remarkable plays by women writers from the underrepresented African countries of Tanzania, Mozambique, Ethiopia, Mali, Burundi, Benin, and Sudan, plus a play by award-winning Ugandan playwright and volume coeditor Asimwe Kawe. Four of the plays are translated into English from Kiswahili, French, or Kirundi, and French, while most of the plays preserve African indigenous languages including Runyankore, Lusoga, Mina, Fon, Bambara, Luganda, Kiswahili, and Kirundi. Although the plays are united in presenting women as central figures who own their voices, they also represent a rich diversity of story telling. Each unique dramaturgy is rooted in African forms of story telling that occasionally merge with recognizable Western forms to create hybrid dramatic forms. These hybrid methods emphasize the striking ways in which African women writers continue to experiment with form, moving beyond Western-influenced dramaturgy if and when it jeopardizes their authentic ways of artistic expression and creation through language, movement, and music centered in African cosmology. The plays within Speaking Our Selves confront a range of ideas and issues, including women embracing the potential of agency in often contested subject positions, confronting their historical object positions in worlds of devastating patriarchal authority, resisting toxic masculinity, and persistent oppressive binaries of gender roles; finding power in communities of women; increasing their acumen in financial business and economic spheres; facing tensions between traditional religious tenets and efforts toward secularization; living with perpetual acts of violence toward their bodies; and the rising mental health issues among girls and women across the continent. Readers and audiences are challenged by these plays not to be passive witnesses by observing from safe vantage points but rather to be active participants in the stories being told.

This is the sixth volume of a detailed play-by-play catalogue of drama written by English, Welsh, Irish, and Scottish authors during the 110 years between the English Reformation to the English Revolution, covering every known play extant and lost, including some which have never before been identified. It is based on a complete systematic survey of the whole of this body of work, presented in chronological order. Each entry contains comprehensive information about a single play: its various titles, authorship, and date; a summary of its plot; list of its roles; and details of the human and geographical world in which the fictional action takes place; a list of its sources, narrative and verbal; and a summary of its formal characteristics, details of its staging requirements, and an account of its early stage and textual history.

Vols 5 include the monthly rotogravure supplement Uncle Sam's News Reel, issued as section 2 from May 24, 1937 to Dec 11, 1939. 30.54 cm.

Proceedings of the sections of the Association are included in the volumes as follows: Trust Company section organized 1896; 1st, 3rd, 7th, 14th annual meetings in v. 23, 25, 29, 35; 1897, 1899, 1903, 1909; Savings Bank section organized 1902; 2d, 8th annual meetings in v. 29, 35; 1903, 1909; Clearing House section organized 1906; 3d annual meetings in v. 35; 1909.

the dictionary gives explanations of the meanings and use of proverbs whenever these are obscure by means of numerous illustrative quotations it also provides a documentary history of each proverb from its first recorded use in written English and supplies details of earlier related forms in other languages
